

Ebenezer Youth Fellowship
1. Living Clean in an Unclean World
Psalm 119:9

This text raises important questions on the subject of Christian purity and testimony in an evil world. It also supplies the answers.

The Central Lesson of the Text

Living clean in an unclean world depends on having our way of life controlled by the Word of God.

THE PLACE OF THE BIBLE IN OUR LIVES

1. Recognize it for what it is

What is it? _____

What does 2 TIM. 3:16 teach?

2. Read it for what it is:

A. Our Authority—What does this mean?

B. Our Guide—How does God's Word point our way? _____

C. What establishes our standard of behaviour.

How may the second part of v. 9 be translated? _____

How may we summarize the place of the Bible in our lives? _____

THE PROPER USE OF THE BIBLE

What does take heed mean?

Complete the following:

1. Exercise your _____

What does 1 TIM. 4:13 teach us? _____

2. Establish the _____

What does Question 1 of the Shorter Catechism say? _____

Name some things that the world thinks give meaning to life. _____

Name two Bible texts that tell us the real purpose of our lives? _____

3. Examine the _____

How do the morals of our day reflect the times of the Judges? _____

Summarize the popular moral philosophy of the world. _____

List some verses in PSALMS 119 and 33 that show the Bible standard. _____

4. Evaluate the _____

How did King Saul evaluate his life? _____

How did the Apostle Paul evaluate his life? _____

THE POWER OF THE BIBLE IN OUR LIVES

1. What does the text say the Word of God will do? _____

2. Give TWO texts that describe the sanctifying power of the Word of God. _____

3. How do we enter into the experience of this power? _____
