Topic: Home Imperishable

Scripture Text: John 14:1-6

1. God is a very present help in times of trouble. He is kind and loving to us. Hence, Jesus said to us in John 14:1 "let not your heart be troubled". Jesus who spoke these words to us is God Himself. That is why Jesus said if the hearers believe in God, they must also believe in Him who is God.

2. Jesus spoke these comforting words to the disciples who were troubled by the thought that Jesus would soon depart from them to go back to Heaven. They thought that they would then be without hope and guide.

3. Jesus who spoke these comforting words knows every aspect of our lives. He has unsearchable wisdom and cares for us greatly. He will not leave us alone nor will He leave us comfortless.

4. Jesus told us of the Home in Heaven that He will prepare for us. There are many mansions in heaven that is prepared for all those who trust in the Lord Jesus Christ. The mansions in heaven will not need any repairs and are permanent unlike any earthly houses which will decay and are temporal.

5. There is no permanent residency on earth. Everyone will have to face death. After death, it is the Judgment. For believers in Jesus Christ, we have a most blessed assurance that our future is secured in heaven. Jesus is coming back again for us. The signs of His coming are already seen and He will come very soon. Are we ready when Jesus comes again?
