

31 December 2017: Preached by Preacher Clement Chew

Topic: Behold I Come Quickly

Scripture text: Revelation 22:6-21

1. Our Lord Jesus Christ will return very soon. It is imminent and after 2000 years, we are even nearer to His Second Coming. We must not forget this truth or be distracted from it. God's Word is faithful and true (v6). We must take it to heart and have the right response.
2. We must obey and keep God's Word (v7). Revelation is both a book of comfort and of warning. It will encourage believers to persevere. It will also warn us that the world will be destroyed.
3. We must not seal God's Word up (v10). Rather, we must actively warn the world about the coming judgement. We must repent quickly if not our state will be permanent. When judgement comes, it will be too late. Now is the time to preach the gospel. The Lord Jesus Christ will come again with rewards. We have to be sure that we are born again believers.
4. We must look forward to the Second Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ (v20). God is serious about His Word and no one can add or subtract to it.
