Topic: Judgement is Coming!

Scripture text: 2 Peter 3:1-12

1. Men live in denial of the coming judgment of the world by fire and they scoff at it because they prefer to live wantonly in their sins. The judgment of the Lord against sinners and their wickedness is certain and will surely come to pass, just as the first judgment upon the world by a global flood. Christians must know the truth that the world will be annihilated by a global fire and remember that this world is not our home. We are but strangers and pilgrims on our way to our heavenly home.

2. It has been millenniums after the first judgment upon the world, yet the world remains as it is. God works according to His own time and has deferred the global fire judgment because of His mercies. God is longsuffering and offers a window of salvation to all men, not willing that they should perish but that all should come to repentance. All who believe in Christ can receive the blessing of salvation from sin and wrath and be eternally safe and secure.

3. Christians must be ready and yearn for the coming of the Lord Jesus by living soberly, zealous in service and holy in conduct.
