

Date: 5 December 2021
Speaker: Pastor Clement Chew
Topic: Provoke One Another
Text: Hebrews 10:24-25

1. Since the coming of the Lord is soon, we must be spiritually sensitive to God's will for our lives. One of such is to be long suffering with others. It is necessary for us now on Earth to provoke one another unto love and good works so that our brethren will be kept away from the path of sin. This is something no longer necessary in Heaven when we have our glorified bodies.
2. Christians must first consider one another. Do not be selfish and only think of ourselves and our needs. We should have the desire to help, comfort and bless others. It sometimes means that we have to rebuke others so that they walk in the ways of the Lord.
3. Christians must provoke others to good works. Be careful of sinful thoughts as it may soon lead to wrong action. Do not provoke others to think evil things and commit sinful acts. Instead, provoke them to love the Lord and love one another. One way to provoke others is to read aloud the responsive reading with conviction so that those around us will be encouraged by us.

Provoke others not unto evil, but unto love and good works