Topic: The Christmas Gift

Text: Romans 6:23

1. The Christmas gift that God gives to us is a singular gift, not plural. One must never lose sight of this gift amidst all the revelry and fun going on in this world. Firstly, this gift we can receive is an undeserving gift. Every man is born a sinner and there is none that doeth good. Therefore, we deserve both physical and eternal death. But God loves us and gives to us His only begotten Son.
2. Secondly, this gift is a divine gift. Christmas Day is a joyous day because we remember the gift that a loving God gives to us. This gift is God Himself, the second person of the Trinity, Jesus Christ. He came down to Earth and died on the cross so that our sins may be forgiven.
3. Lastly, this gift is a lively gift. This gift is living because Jesus conquered death to rise from the dead and is now seated at the right hand of God. If we receive this gift, we will have eternal life in Heaven after we pass on from this Earth. Our souls will be forever with the Lord. This can only come about by believing in Jesus Christ as your Lord and Saviour.

Will you choose eternal life or eternal death?
